Section 1: Employee Declaration

The Arbor Academy Trust are required to establish a register of business and personal interests of the Trustee’s and staff, which should be open to inspection. Governors, Principals and any other staff should declare any links they have with local companies from which the The Arbor Academy Trust may wish to buy goods or services, with the Arbor Academy Trust. It is important for anyone involved in spending public money to demonstrate that they do not benefit personally from any decisions that they make.

Please delete the statement which does not apply:
